

NATIONAL DIVERSITY COUNCIL
Emerging Leaders Program

Are You Ready to Become Our Next NDC Emerging Leader?

Intern with major corporations that value diversity, equity, and inclusion!

By promoting collaboration, education and opportunity for underrepresented students, this program bridges qualified diverse talent with valuable internships at major organizations that value diversity, equity, and inclusion. This paid summer internship program aims to advance racial equity in the workplace through talent pipeline efforts.

Benefits

- ✓ Competitively paid 10 week internship
- ✓ Be given a meaningful project for a major corporation
- ✓ Engage in professional and leadership development seminars
- ✓ Assigned corporate mentor
- ✓ Be a part of the NDC Leadership Cohort
- ✓ Network with a diverse array of industry leaders

Requirements

- Must be a college sophomore or junior for the Spring 2024 (Graduation dates Dec 2024, May 2025 - May 2026). Open to all majors.
- Submit an essay with your interest and why you should be selected.
- Submit a letter of recommendation from a faculty member (professors, club advisors, academic counselors, etc) or administrative staff leader (dean, president or provost, etc).
- Must attend an informational session prior to applying.

Participating Universities

For more information visit emergingleaders.nationaldiversitycouncil.org or email cynthia.rocha@nationaldiversitycouncil.org